

NEW COURSE - SPRING 2018

Cyprus and the Medieval Mediterranean: An Island and Its Monuments

REL 503/HIS 514 (3 credits)

Profs. Derek Krueger (Religious Studies) and Asa Eger (History)

- Learn about the history, art, and architecture of Cyprus from Roman to Ottoman times through its monuments and topography. Understand the relationship of paganism, Christianity and Islam to architecture and the role of the island in the Mediterranean world.
- INCLUDES A 9 DAY FIELD TRIP TO CYPRUS DURING SPRING BREAK
- Field Trip includes room and board in Cyprus (except five dinners), program related travel expenses, IPC fee, insurance, all museum and archaeological site entrances. Cost = $2000.00. Estimated Airfare = $1,400.00
- Financial Aid is applicable for travel. Scholarships/grants available for Honors College students, Religious Studies and Philosophy majors.
- Application Deadline is SEPTEMBER 15. $500 nonrefundable deposit due October 2, $750 due on November 6 and December 4.

*For more information please contact: d_kruege@uncg.edu or aaeger@uncg.edu.

UNCG reserves the right to cancel or change program content or costs in case of conditions beyond its control.